Claim 51.(currently amended): A method of presoaking cloth for cleaning a cylinder in a printing press, the method comprising:

contacting a cleaning fabric supply roll with a low volatility, compound solvent which does not evaporate readily at ambient temperature and pressure and soaking and saturating said cleaning fabric supply roll with said solvent, such that the contacting of the cleaning fabric supply roll with the solvent does not require the use of pumps, spray bars, manifold lines and valves; and engaging said saturated cleaning fabric supply roll with a printing press having a cylinder to be cleaned without disposing [[of]] a sleeve about said fabric roll and without substantially disturbing the distribution of said solvent in said fabric roll and detrimentally affecting the cleaning ability of the fabric.

Claim 52-53 (withdrawn)

Claim 54. (withdrawn) The method of claim 51, further including removing excess solvent from the cleaning fabric supply roll wherein the solvent removal occurs inside a container holding the solvent.

Claim 55. (previously presented) The method of claim 51, further including removing excess solvent from the cleaning fabric supply roll, wherein the solvent removal occurs outside a container holding the solvent.

Claim 56. (currently amended) A method of presoaking cloth for cleaning a cylinder in a printing press, the method comprising:

wrapping a cleaning fabric supply roll around a core, and subsequently contacting [[a]] said cleaning fabric supply roll with a low volatility, compound solvent which does not evaporate readily at ambient temperature and pressure and soaking and saturating said cleaning fabric supply roll with said solvent; and engaging said saturated cleaning fabric supply roll with a printing press having a cylinder to be cleaned without disposing a sleeve about said fabric roll.
